Guide for Authors

Paper Types
The journal publishes Full text research Papers, Short Communications, Reviews, and Case Studies.

Submission
Submission to this journal proceeds totally online. Use the following guidelines to prepare your article. Submission of an article implies that the work described has not been published previously, and is not under consideration for publication elsewhere. All communications (notification of the Editor's decision and requests for revision) takes place by e-mail and via the author's homepage. Authors are requested to provide the names and e-mail addresses of at least 3 reviewers.

Manuscript Preparation
The manuscripts should be typed double spaced in 12 pt Times New Roman font and it must include the essential elements: Title, List of authors, Addresses of authors, Abstract, Keywords, Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results and Discussion, Conclusions, Footnotes, Acknowledgements, and References.

Divide your article into clearly defined and numbered sections. Subsections should be numbered 1.1 (then 1.1.1, 1.1.2, …), 1.2, etc.

Title: Should clearly indicate the content of the article. No abbreviation should be used in the title.

Authors and their addresses: Should be placed below the title. Use an asterisk (*) to distinguish the "corresponding author" with a footnote containing phone number (with country and area code), fax number, full postal address, and e-mail address of the person. (Title Page, including Titles and Authors and their addresses, should be submitted as a separate file.)

Abstract: Abstract should state briefly (no more than 300 words) the reason of the work, the significant new results and major conclusions. Abbreviations should be avoided.

Keywords: Up to five words should be provided.

Introduction: State the objectives of the work and provide an adequate background, avoiding a detailed literature survey and a summary of the results.

Materials and Methods: Provide sufficient detail to allow the work to be reproduced. Methods already published should be indicated by a reference.

Results and Discussions: Results and Discussions should be clear and concise.

Conclusions: The main conclusions of the work must be presented in a short Conclusions section.

Acknowledgements: Collate it at the end of the article before the references.

References: All publications cited in the text should be presented in a list of references (and vice versa). References should be listed on a separate sheet in numerical order according to their order of appearance in the text. Typical citations are illustrated below:
You can use APA format in google scholar citation page.

Book:

Chapter in an edited book:

Patent:

Tables and Figures: should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals (Table 1. and Figure 1.). Tables must have a brief descriptive title. Figures should have figure captions. The content of figures and tables should not be duplicated. Figures and tables must be put in related location in the manuscript.